CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE—2003–04 REGULAR SESSION

ASSEMBLY BILL

No. 183

Introduced by Assembly Member Nation

January 27, 2003

An act to add Section 14132.415 to the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to Medi-Cal.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 183, as amended, Nation. Medi-Cal: benefits.

Existing law provides for the Medi-Cal program, which is administered by the State Department of Health Services, pursuant to which medical benefits are provided to public assistance recipients and certain other low-income persons. Under existing law, these benefits include early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment for any individual under 21 years of age, known as EPSDT, consistent with the requirements of specified federal law.

This bill would ~~include services that are~~ provide for coverage under the Medi-Cal program for Medi-Cal services provided by a licensed marriage and family therapist and a licensed clinical social worker, ~~within their respective scopes of practice, within the scope of Medi-Cal covered benefits~~ as a supplemental service provider in the EPSDT program for beneficiaries of any age, consistent with existing law defining the scope of practice of marriage and family therapy and clinical social work, to the extent that federal matching funds are available for those services, and subject to utilization controls. This bill would make implementation of these provisions contingent upon an appropriation in the annual Budget Act or another statute.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: yes.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 14132.415 is added to the Welfare and
